

Professor Mehmet Haberal

A moment of silence to recall the absence of our colleague

The DECLARATION of ISTANBUL on ORGAN TRAFFICKING and TRANSPLANT TOURISM
www.declarationofistanbul.org

DICG 2013 Meeting –Doha, Qatar
Sheraton Hotel Doha
12 – 14 April 2013

A CELEBRATION OF THE DOHA ACCORD AND AN ASSESSMENT OF THE DECLARATION OF ISTANBUL AT ITS 5TH ANNIVERSARY

Friday 12th April

Gulf Countries Ministerial Meeting Concluding Faissal Shaheen
17.00 Break
19.00 Opening Ceremony
under the patronage of Her Highness, Sheikha Mozah bint Nasser Al Missned, Vice Chair of the Supreme Council of Health of Qatar

Moment of silence aware of the plight of our Istanbul colleague Mehmet Haberal

Saturday 13th April

Co-Chairs Jeremy Chapman and Adeera Levin
Facilitator Francis Delmonico
08.00 Session 1: Review of Principles and Proposals of the DoI
Session goal: Review the Declaration of Istanbul document
Introduced by: Alexander Capron
Panel: Mike Bos, Ali Bagheri, Mario Abbud Filho, Annika Tibell, Adib Rizvi
08.45 Session 2: Implementation strategies for the DoI – successes and failures
Session goal: Review the progress of the implementation of the Declaration of Istanbul including the successes and the failures
Introduced by: Gabe Danovitch
Panel: Antoine Barbari, Harjit Singh, Mario Uribe, Ramesh Prasad, Gurch Randhawa, Benita Padilla, Rafael Reyes-Acevedo

09.45 Session 3: The Doha Accord as a model of the DoI

Session goal: Review the Doha Accord model and its implementation progress

Introduced by: Riadh Fadhil

Panel: Marti Manyalich, Adel Bakr

10.30 Break11.00 Session 4: Transparency in reporting of organ trafficking and transplant tourism

4.1 Session goal: Consider the goals of transparency and standardization in reporting organ trafficking and transplant tourism

4.2 Session goal: How can we improve our working together to combat organ trafficking?

Introduced by: Rudolf Garcia Gallont (4.1), Debra Budiani (4.2)

Panel: Ashley Baquero, Mona Al-Rukhaimi, Gabe Danovitch, Roberto Tanus, Alejandro Nino Murcia, Susanne Lundin, Maria Matamoros

12.30 Lunch13:30 Session 5: Legal issues in using the DoI to combat organ trafficking, transplant tourism and transplant commercialism

Session goals: The relationship of “Organ Trafficking” to “Human Trafficking.”

What legal guidance can DoI give to countries—both “client” and “recipient”—to combat transplant tourism and commercialism?

Introduced by: Dominique Martin

Panel: Alex Capron, Debra Budiani, Ed Cole, Marwan Masri, Sarala Naicker, Anwar Naqvi, Phil O'Connell

15:00 Break

15:30 Session 6: The role of the DoI in development of deceased organ donation programs

6.1 Session goal: Develop means for relating to donor families that are consistent with the Declaration's principles.

Introduced by: Jay Lavee, Mirela Busic, Faissal Shaheen, Haibo Wang

Panel: Igor Codreanu, Josep Lloveras, Valter Duro Garcia, Ali Al Obaidli

6.2 Session Goal: Discuss principles in the development and access to a deceased donor waiting list

Introduced by: Gunter Kirste, Axel Rahmel

Panel: Josefina Alberu, Sergey Khomyakov, Christian Hiesse, Tamar Ashkenazi, Antoine Stephan

17:30 Adjournment

Sunday 14th April

8:00 Session 7: Potential enhancement of DICG capacity

Session goal: Consider development of an international network of physicians for potential donor assessment and follow up for the donor in their home country.

Introduced by: John Gill, Vivek Jha

Panel: Carmen Gracida, Leo De Castro, Yenny Baez, Ian Dittmer, Mahmoud Elmeteni

9.00 Break

9:30 Session 8: The role of legal treaties

Session Goals: Consideration of the content, roles and relevance of an international treaty to address the commercialism in the products of human origin. Does the Council of Europe convention against organ trafficking provide a model for a collaborative effort that could ultimately propel a global treaty?

Introduced by: Luc Noel, Beatriz Dominguez-Gil, Marta Fraga

Panel: Jose Nunez, Faissal Shaheen, Elmi Muller, Shiro Takahara, Vathsala, Antoine Stephan

11.00 Session 9: Action plans

Chairs: Jeremy Chapman and Adeera Levin

12.00 Close of DICG 5th Anniversary Meeting

Noon Luncheon provided for everyone before departure

15:00 Reconvene Session Introducers for review of comments/proposal recorded from the deliberations of each Session.